

NEVADA STATE BOARD OF PHYSICAL THERAPY EXAMINERS

Affidavit Verifying Supervision
During the first 2000 Hours of Work as a
Physical Therapist's Assistant

Nevada Administrative Code 640.596(1)(c) provides that "A physical therapist's assistant shall not have less than 2000 hours of experience as a physical therapist's assistant during which the supervising physical therapist is on the premises when any procedures or activities of physical therapy are performed by the physical therapist's assistant, before working in any setting without such supervision." Pursuant to these provisions, each physical therapist's assistant must submit a completed affidavit to the Nevada State Board of Physical Therapy Examiners attesting that the physical therapist's assistant has been supervised on-site in excess of 2000 hours by the supervising physical therapist, before working in any setting without on-site supervision.
