

1 Check Eligibility

Use the PT Compact Eligibility Checker to verify eligibility

- Hold a valid PT or PTA license in your home state (must be a compact member).
- Have a valid driver's license proving permanent residency in your home state.
- No active encumbrances or disciplinary actions in the past two years.
- The state you want to practice in must be a compact member.

2 Fees & Jurisprudence Requirements

Each state has different fees and may require passing a jurisprudence exam. Fees and Requirements.

Nevada requires the Jurisprudence exam be completed before the compact is awarded and can be taken here: NV Jurisprudence
Failing to take a required exam can lead to the termination of your compact privilege and disciplinary action.

Nevada
PT Fees	Total CP Fee	State CP Fee + Commission CP Fee
$195	$150	+ $45
PTA Fees
$145	$100	+ $45
Total CP Fee	State CP Fee	Commission CP Fee

3 Apply for Compact Privileges

You would apply for Compact Privileges through the PT Compact: PtCompact.org
Log in with your FSBPT ID and password (retrieve credentials if needed).

- Select the state(s) and verify eligibility.
- Confirm you've passed all required jurisprudence exams.
- Pay the applicable fees.

4 Receive & Verify Compact Privileges

Your compact privilege number(s) will be emailed and added to your dashboard.
The Nevada Physical Therapy Practice Act requires Nevada Privilege holders to inform the Nevada Board of their place of employment and have proof of licensure to practice available to the public.

Email PTAPPLICATION@govmail.state.nv.us with your employer's location, contact information, and start date to receive proof of licensure to practice.
